4th Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year C) 30th January 2022

Sunday Reflection

The Gospel this Sunday shows a close connection between Jesus' teaching and his healing. In each example of Jesus' work, St. Luke points out the particular concern Jesus has for each individual as he heals them one by one. His compassion makes him approachable and gives people confidence to ask him for help in their need. Even when Jesus is surrounded by a crowd of people in need, St. Luke notes that he "laid his hands on each of them and cured them". Luke invites his readers into the scene to witness these events, and we are asked to imagine what it would be like to listen to Jesus, to receive his healing touch, to be freed from bondage to evil, and then to feel amazed and grateful for God's salvation.

Blessed Carlo Pray for us.

Lord Jesus

I give you my hands to do your work

I give you my feet to go your way

I give you my eyes to see as you do

I give you my tongue to speak your words

I give you my mind that you may think in me

I give you my spirit that you may pray in me

Above all, I give you my heart

That you may love in me

Your father and all mankind

I give you my whole self that you may grow

In me so that it is you Lord Jesus

Who live and work and pray in me.

Amen. © The Grail Society
