Sunday Reflection

Our gospel on this 3rd Sunday of Easter is taken from St. John 21:1-19. The scene was the final appearance of the Risen Lord in the sea of Tiberias. A fruitless night of fishing by the disciples. An image of the disciple's apostolic mission. Apart from Jesus, their efforts are fruitless; obedient to his command, in the light of his day they experience success beyond all expectation. In the second part of the gospel the episode shifts from the missionary emphasis of the catch of fish to commissioning Peter to carry on the pastoral role of protecting, nurturing, and keeping united the flock entrusted to Jesus by the Father.

Confirmation Programme Next Session is on Sunday 1st May at 5pm. Candidates will then attend 6.30pm Mass.

Lord Jesus

I give you my hands to do your work

I give you my feet to go your way

I give you my eyes to see as you do

I give you my tongue to speak your words

I give you my mind that you may think in me

I give you my spirit that you may pray in me

Above all, I give you my heart

That you may love in me

Your father and all mankind

I give you my whole self that you may grow

In me so that it is you Lord Jesus

Who live and work and pray in me. Amen. © The Grail Society
