Sunday Reflection – In the readings for today, we have a form of writing known as “Apocalyptic”. This form of writing stresses that desperate situations, even cosmic upheavals, will be transformed to give hope and life. It generates the hope of those who suffer in the present. This hope is founded on God who is “Lord of history”. The focus is on “the end of time”. In a time of uncertainty, we need to hold onto something reliable and eternal. Hence the words of Jesus: “Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away”. God has intervened and manifested his victory over evil in the life and death and Resurrection of Jesus Christ. Hold on to Jesus; God’s word and that word is enough for you. That is the Word that will not pass away and will lead you to eternal life. “But for all that, they (Jesus’ Words) will benefit us little unless we act on them. These words of Jesus are like precious seeds. If left aside in a jar, they remain just ‘seeds’. But if they are taken out and planted, they produce a rich harvest. In comparison with faith, there is nothing sure or lasting in the World. Human opinions are rooted in appearances, and change from day to day, but the words of Jesus do not change or pass away. We would do well to build the house of our life on His words.” (Flor McCarthy, SDB).

Remembrance Sunday – This is a Special Day in November to pray for all our Deceased who lost their lives in the service for their Country. Poppies are available in the Repository and Parish Office. We Remember and Pray.

World Day of the Poor: A Day to Remember all our brothers and sisters who live in poverty, especially those who live in poverty-stricken areas of our World. As the World Conference in Glasgow comes to an end, we hope and pray that these people will not be forgotten, but that justice and heart-felt Peace will be pursued for the future wellbeing of Humanity and our World.
