Pentecost Sunday (Year C) 5th June 2022

Sunday Reflection

The Gospel St. John's Pentecost narrative gives the disciples a vision of the glorious Christ and the mission to continue his work. The disciples' mission is the prolongation of Jesus' own: "As the Father has sent me, so I send you" (Jn 20:21). This mission of salvation; the power to forgive sins is combined with the showing of the marks of the wounds to show that forgiveness is the actualization of Christ's sacrifice. The Lucan version we read of the Acts of the Apostles shows the opening of doors to the world. The Spirit comes like a strong driving wind. The ruah (spirit, wind) blows where it wills, opening doors and hearts, enflaming the disciples' hearts, resting on them like tongues of fire. Pentecost marks the birth of the Church as those who accept the message of the apostles are baptized and are added to the original disciples.

Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created. And You shall renew the face of the earth. O, God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit, did instruct the hearts of the faithful, grant that by the same Holy Spirit we may be truly wise and ever enjoy His consolations, Through Christ Our Lord, Amen.
