Sunday Reflection

The apostles request to “increase their faith” is fitting since their task is to spread the Kingdom of God. The faith which they seek to increase is not only a firm intellectual assent to the message of salvation brought by Jesus, but that unique power of conviction and trust in God which will enable them to spread the Gospel in the world through preaching and miracles. The apostles, in asking an increase in faith have formulated in quantitative terms what must be evaluated in terms of quality. Perhaps Jesus would want to correct somewhat that point of view: when it is a matter of true faith, of total faith, quantity is of little importance; if a person has the least little bit of that kind of faith, even as little as a mustard seed, he/she has enough to accomplish apparently impossible actions.

Dear Fr. Allan and Parishioners,

I write to thank you and all my brother Servites and all Parishioners for such a joyful and wonderful celebration of my Golden Jubilee of Ordination on Sunday, 25th September 2022. The Church was so beautifully decorated for the occasion. The floral arrangements were wonderful, and the Porch and Colonnade looked magnificent. The Liturgy was so joyful and uplifting. The Choir, directed by Henry, the music, the Harpists, and Bernie were just superb. Thanks also to our Readers and Servers. I want to thank most sincerely all our lovely parishioners for your joyful participation and presence in Church and in School Hall and Yard after mass and for your generous gifts and cards and emails. I will treasure the celebration in my heart and pray for you all and your families and loved ones, asking the Good Lord to bless you all with His Love and Peace. Sincere thanks to all our good people who contributed and cooked food and brought it to the Hall for sharing. The Hall and Tables were just lovely with joyful decorations. Sincere and joyful thanks to all Parishioners, School Staff and Children and Parents for such a wonderful celebration. May God bless you all.

Love and Peace,

Fr. Patrick Ryall, OSM
