2nd Sunday after the Nativity (Year C) 2nd January 2022

Sunday Reflection

The Gospel of John sets out the Son's abiding relationship with the Father in terms of great intimacy. It is the Son who is "in the bosom of the Father who has made known the God whom human can't see". To those who accept Him, however-people of every generation-Jesus bestows the privilege of becoming children of God. This is the central point of the incarnation of the Word becoming flesh. God becomes human so that humanity may be raised to the dignity of God's children
(This is the truth that believers have to discover at Christmas).
Happy New Year!
