15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (YEAR C) 10TH JULY 2022

Sunday Reflection

The message of the gospel this Sunday is crystal clear: Just as a Samaritan acted as a neighbour towards a person in need without any other consideration than his need, so also must you do the same to any person in need whatever his/her race, colour, or creed.

Today is Sea Sunday – The Church prays for all who live and work at sea. Many of us have never stopped to consider how important seafarers are to our standard of living. Without them we would not have most of the items we use in our everyday lives. Many of these seafarers are unable to practice their faith due to long periods away from home, whilst others are denied basic rights and working conditions that we take for granted. Today's 2nd collection is our opportunity to support the work of the Apostleship of the Sea (AoS), the official maritime welfare agency of the Catholic Church in Great Britain. This annual collection is absolutely vital to enable AoS to continue its work with seafarers. Please give generously and remember seafarers in your prayers.

Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.

Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created.

And You shall renew the face of the earth.

O, God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit, did instruct the hearts of the faithful, grant that by the same Holy Spirit we may be truly wise and ever enjoy His consolations, Through Christ Our Lord, Amen.
