3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year C) 23rd January 2022

Sunday Reflection

The Gospel of this Sunday is composed of two parts. First, St. Luke establishes the purpose of his account of the life of Jesus. He wrote it down so that his readers may realize the certainty of the teaching they have received. It's a form of witnessing to Jesus, a real person and event in history. The other part narrates Jesus' proclamation of the fulfilment of the scriptures in His person. The longed for "year acceptable to the Lord" has come. The Good News would be proclaimed to the poor. Captives would be set free. The sick would find healing. And the oppressed would have freedom. It's going to happen in Jesus' ministry.

Lord Jesus

*I give you my hands to do your work
I give you my feet to go your way
I give you my eyes to see as you do
I give you my tongue to speak your words
I give you my mind that you may think in me
I give you my spirit that you may pray in me
Above all, I give you my heart
That you may love in me
Your father and all mankind
I give you my whole self that you may grow
In me so that it is you Lord Jesus
Who live and work and pray in me.
Amen. © The Grail Society*
